DoD Centralized Intern Program

Overview

The Department of Defense (DOD) seeks motivated student interns to fill various internship opportunities in a challenging and rewarding environment. The Internship Program is designed to provide students with real-world experience in multiple disciplines within different DOD groups. The DOD Centralized Intern Program's goal is to facilitate the building of competent, diverse, and highly-skilled interns ready to meet the 21st century's global challenges and to support the department's national security mission.

Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE), in collaboration with DoD, currently administers this program. Students and recent graduates will be assigned to internships that support various DoD Components. Candidates will perform assigned tasks in a fast-pace and dynamic environment, under the close supervision of DoD and ORISE.

Candidates will be expected to perform in a professional and effective manner; present a positive attitude and willingness to accept assignments; and maintain appropriate dress attire. ORISE will place student interns throughout the National Capitol Region (Washington, DC, Maryland and Northern Virginia). Candidates are considered ORISE participants; and as such candidates will receive stipend payments and other support through ORISE.

Application Process
